COUNT IV - 42 U.S.C. §1983
CUSTOM, POLICY AND PRACTICE - MONELL CLAIM
JESUS SOBERAL v. CITY OF PHILADELPHIA

34. Paragraphs 1-33 are incorporated by reference, as though fully set forth at length.
35. The Plaintiff, Jesus Soberal, believes and therefore avers that defendant, City of Philadelphia, has adopted and maintained for many years a recognized and accepted policy, custom, and practice of condoning and/or the acquiescence in the use of excessive force by its police officers; particularly against individuals who are already being detained at the police station, and in systematically verbally and physically abusing individuals who complain about the conditions of their confinement, and subjecting them to the same type of treatment to which plaintiff was subjected, which policy constitutes unlawful seizures and the use of excessive force in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.
36. The Plaintiff believes and therefore avers that defendant, City of Philadelphia, has adopted and maintained for many years, a recognized and accepted policy, custom and/or practice of systematically failing to properly train, supervise and/or discipline officers, including the individual defendants, regarding constitutional restraints on the use of force, which policy violates the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States.

that it deliberately, knowingly, and recklessly failed to take measures to stop or limit the policy, including, inter alia, providing proper training, supervision, discipline, and control of the officers, agents, and/or employees of the City of Philadelphia Police Department, including the named defendants.

39. The Plaintiff believes and therefore avers that the defendants, City of Philadelphia, have adopted and maintained for many years a recognized and accepted policy, custom and/or practice of failing to properly investigate matters in which officers unlawfully used unjustifiable and/or excessive force, which allows for and results in an encouragement to officers within the Philadelphia Police Department to continue doing same, and creates policies, practices and/or customs allowing officers to proceed in this manner and creates an atmosphere for the allowance of the use of excessive force without fear of punishment.
40. By failing to take action to stop or limit the policy and/or by remaining deliberately indifferent to the systematic abuses which occurred in accordance with and as a direct and proximate result of the policy, custom and/or practice, defendants, City of Philadelphia, condoned, acquiesced in, participated in and perpetrated the policy, custom and/or practice in violation of the Plaintiffs' rights under Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States.
